There was a complaint report prepared, he was fingerprinted and taken to Manhattan Central Booking. I spoke with the Manhattan DA Q. What I was really referring to was prior to the arrest, can you describe anything that you did or investigated about this badge before you made the decision to place Mr. Dikler under arrest? A. I don't understand the question.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	M. Visconti Q. And you could tell by looking at it that it was a forged badge? A. Yes. Q. Why is that? A. The specific shape of the badge and what it said on the face of it. Q. When did it say on the face of it? A. Again, I don't recall specifically. It was something about the Transit Authority. Q. Do you recall if that was the first arrest that you made with respect to a Transit Authority badge? A. I am not sure. Q. It is possible that there were prior arrests? MS. PRIVETERRE: Objection. A. I am not sure. Q. How about after this arrest, did you arrest any other Transit Authority employees for carrying a badge? A. No, I don't believe so.
